

SUPPORTING

RAILWAY

PEOPLE

Hayley, a Customer Host from Cardiff, reached out to RBF at one of the darkest periods of her life. Six weeks after giving birth, Hayley lost her partner to suicide. As a first-time mum, her mental health deteriorated, and she soon found herself in debt, as she struggled to afford life's necessities. Hayley was in an incredibly low situation, barely scraping by and worried about providing for her daughter.

RBF were able to support Hayley by covering essential bills and necessities for herself and her daughter whilst she had time off work to grieve. We were able to clear her debts and provide some much-needed furniture for her one-bedroom flat, so that Hayley and her daughter could have a cosy and comfortable place to call home.
